Ban On Daugherty Demanded

CONDEMNATION ASKED OF G. O. P. CONVENTION

Insurgents Launch Fight Against Ex-Attorney General

ALBERT FALL IS INCLUDED

Action Would Forever Bar Them from Party oHnors

CLEVELAND — (By Associated Press) — Republican insurgents acting thru the Wisconsin delegation will ask the Republican national convention to formally condemn the official acts of Harry M. Daugherty as attorney general and Albert Fall, as secretary of the interior.

This is disclosed in an official copy of the insurgent platform made public today by Robert M. LaFollette Jr., son of the Wisconsin senator, in the name of the Wisconsin delegation. The statement says further that Daugherty and Fall "be forever debarred from holding any position of honor or trust within the gift either of the Republican party or of any future Republican administration."

The insurgents also would have President Coolidge summon congress into extraordinary session on Monday, July 7, 1924, for consideration of emergency legislation for relief of agriculture; to provide funds for payment of soldiers' bonus; for consideration of the Howell-Barkley bill for the settlement of disputes between carriers and employes; for amendment of the rate-making section of the transportation act looking toward the reduction of "extorionate railroad rates" and for reclamation relief legislation extending the time of payment to farmers on government reclamation projects.

NOMINATING SYSTEM

It is further declared that the convention system of nominating president and vice presidential candidates "has failed" and the senate and house members should be urged to initiate and support such constitutional amendment and legislation as may be necessary to provide for direct nomination and election by the people of the United States of candidates for president and vice president.

The convention will be asked by the insurgents to extend its congratulations to 31 Republican senators and 211 Republican representatives for display of courage and independence "in voting for tax bill enacted into law by both houses of congress and signed by the president, as a substitute for the Mellon plan."

In this connection request is made for legislation to "give full and complete publicity on tax returns" and for a "pledge to the American people that neither the Mellon plan nor any other tax bill providing for unwarranted reductions in super taxes of multimillionaires and profiteering corporations shall receive the support of the Republican party in a future session of the congress."

CAMPAIGN GIFTS

Another plank proposed by the Wisconsin delegation in its statement provides that neither the Republican national committee nor the Republican congressional or senatorial campaign committee in the presidential and congressional campaigns of 1924, "shall accept any contribution in any amount whatsoever from any individual or from any individual connected in any way with any corporation, subject to prosecution as a trust or monopoly or other illegal combination or having any interest in oil, coal, timber or other natural resources found on the public domain."

Finally the statement calls upon the convention to extend its approval and commendation to the following senators for exceptional services.

George W. Norris of Nebraska, for opposing the effort to deliver Muscle Shoals "to private interests upon improper conditions and with inadequate compensation;" to James Couzens of Michigan "for his zeal in uncovering the frauds and irregularities in connection with internal revenue and prohibition enforcement;" David A Reed, of Pennsylvania, for disclosing the widespread graft and corruption in the veterans' bureau under the administration of Charles R. Forbes; Tasker L. Oddie of Nevada, for "demonstrating that grave conditions of neglect and inefficiency are still permitted to exist in that bureau; Smith Brookhart of Iowa for his vigor in conducting the investigation of the outrageous scandals in the department of

U. S. FILMS ARE BOYCOTTED

Jap Theatres Act as Result of Exclusion Law

TOKIO—(By Associated Press) —Attributing their action to "public demand," owners of motion picture theatres in Tokio, at a general meeting today launched a boycott against American films.

Beginning July 1, the theatre proprietors will not buy or rent American films or show them in their theatres, according to a resolution passed at the meeting.

Another resolution was passed pledging the owners to cooperate in an effort to make the boycott nationwide.

The boycott is believed to be due partly, at least, to intimidation of the theatre owners by "patriotic" bands incensed at the American immigration measure excluding Japanese from the United States

Several motion picture theatres showing American films were forced to close when they were invaded by gangs of ronin (political ruffians) Saturday evening.

Later the Tokio theatre owners sent a committee to Osaka to urge extension of the boycott to that section.

COUNTY SHOULD CLEAN UP, DR. POLING SAYS

City Complaint Filed Weeks Ago, Official Claims

CARETAKER IS NEEDED

"Public Disgrace" is Accusation of Aged Lima Resident

Responsibility for the filth and general unsanitary conditions existing in the men's comfort station at the court house was laid at the door of the county commissioners Monday when Dr. J. B. Poling, city health commissioner, absolved his department of all blame.

Poling stated that he has done everything in his power to have conditions there improved, claiming that his department inspected the station three weeks ago and filed a complaint with the county commissioners. He says that he exacted a promise from that body to hire a caretaker and relieve unsanitary conditions.

Threats of Lima citizens to lay the matter before the board of commerce were not carried out up to noon Monday. Don C. Jacobs, manager of the board, had not been approached up to that time.

ACTION THREATENED

Conditions at the station were branded a public disgrace by T. K. Hill, 94, of Wood and Eureka-sts, who threatened Saturday to lay the matter before the board of commerce and other civic organizations.

County commissioners, in answer to Hill's protest, claim they have in the past made efforts to clean the place. Arrangements were made for the hiring of a caretaker, they claim, but the county was without the necessary funds to pay a full-time worker. Other arrangements to keep the place in condition were futile.

It is the duty of the city health department to inspect the station every few months and take action if conditions are found to be unsanitary. Poling states that three weeks ago the county promised to "clean the place." He hinted toward some action should they fall down on their promise.

Complainants state that the whole place is filthy with dirt, that no soap, towels or other conveniences can be found, and that the station is being used as a meeting place for habitual loafers.

WALTON LOSES

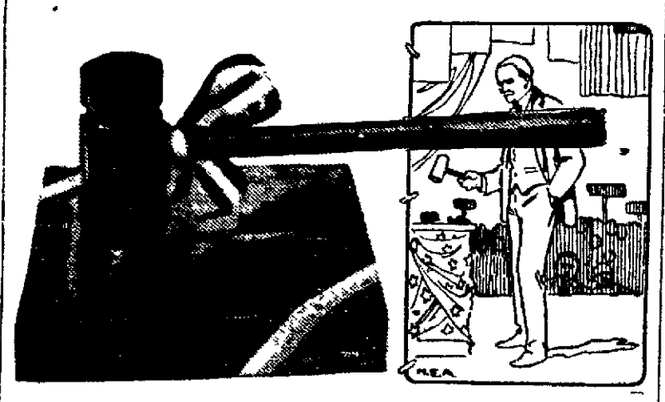
High Court Refuses to Review Impeachment Case

WASHINGTON. — (By Associated Press) — Impeachment of former Governor John C Walton of Oklahoma by the legislature of that state is not subject to review by the courts, it was held today by the supreme court.

The question reached the supreme court on appeal from the federal court of western Oklahoma which refused to take jurisdiction holding that the question presented was political and not judicial.

Former Governor Walton challenged the validity of his impeachment on the ground that charges brought against him were inspired by the Ku Klux Klan and that a large number of the members of the Oklahoma senate who sat in judgment upon him were members of that organization

THE CONVENTION GAVEL



A gavel made of wood from one of the oak trees in Jackson, Mich., under which the Republican party was born 70 years ago, will be used by John T. Adams, national committee chairman, in calling the Cleveland convention to order. Adams then will turn it over to Congressman Theodore E. Burton, temporary convention chairman, who in turn will relinquish it to Frank B. Mondell, permanent chairman. The block on the rostrum is of the same wood.

STORM IS SEEN FROM ABOVE THE CLOUDS

E. H. Dealaroz, chef at the Hotel Argonne, had all the thrills of riding an airplane over the tornado that swept Lima early Sunday morning.

He watched the storm at its very height from the tenth floor of the hotel. The top of the clouds came just to the bottom of his window, he says, and thru them he could observe the actions of the wind.

Signs were twisted just as tho they were made of paper and steel rods were sprung by the force of the blast, he relates in telling of his experience.

"I was in the war in Europe but this was the first time my hair ever stood up on top of my head," he said Monday.

PLANK HURLED

J. S. Bensen, 849 W. Elm-st, was awakened during the storm, it was reported Monday, when a four-inch plank was hurled thru the wall of his bedroom, stopping only a short distance from the head of his bed. It had been picked up by the force of the wind.

A number of occupants of the Phoenix block faced death momentarily when lightning hit a brick chimney and crashed thru the roof during the height of the storm, causing damage amounting to several thousand dollars.

W. E. Love, manager of the Army store, Mrs. Elizabeth Love, and two girls were in the apartment directly underneath the point where the bolt hit the roof. Water flooded three connecting apartments and seeped down thru the remainder of the building.

"We thought for a moment the entire building was gone," Love declared Monday. "The lights were out and you could not tell what happened."

Love was awake, he said, when the storm hit. He arose to fix the awnings outside the window, but as he tried to do so the iron frame was torn loose and crashed thru the glass.

"I pulled down the shade and turned to my wife who was badly frightened. 'It'll be over in a minute,' I told her

BUILDING ROCKED

"I sat down on the bed, and then the lightning hit First there was a flash of lightning outside, and then a terrific roaring for a minute, then the building rocked like a locomotive hit it

"Some plaster hit me in the face Bricks and lath fell into the room It was pitch dark. I didn't know just what had happened, but I knew part of the roof was gone."

Miss Olive Love and Miss Esther Schaffer, of Columbus, were asleep in an adjoining room. They were terrorized by the crash as was Mrs Love. A victrola and table in the room were damaged by bricks.

A hole was torn in the roof, and the cornice sprung out of line. Water flooded three apartments on the top floor and ran down thru the floors beneath into the Grunt store. Scores of tubs, water pails and pans were pressed into use to catch the water.

BLUFFTON STORM DAMAGE BIG

Trees Uprooted, Houses Damaged, Transportation Halted

BLUFFTON—(Special) — This city was recovering Monday from the effects of the severe wind and electrical storm which swept over here early Sunday morning leaving a wreckage of uprooted trees, blown down telephone and power wires and damaged houses.

Interurban transportation was paralyzed all day Sunday and up to 9 a m Monday traction cars had not entered the city. Telephonic communication is being reestablished with wreckage crews working overtime. Lights in the resident districts are out and in the business district a number of store fronts were damaged

Telephone poles blown down brought wires to the ground in the rural district immediately adjoining here which was hit hardest by the force of the storm which raged here for three hours.

SKULL IS BROKEN

Woman is Attacked With Hammer at Cleveland

CLEVELAND — (By United Press)—Mrs. Johanna Niehoff, 46, is dying in a hospital here today, her skull broken by blows from a hammer. The bruised condition of her body testified to a struggle with her assailant, physicians say.

She was discovered late last night by her husband, William Niehoff, as he returned from a fishing trip. She lay unconscious in a field 300 feet from her home. Presumably, she had been attacked enroute home from a neighbor's house.

Her husband after finding his wife, saw a man dart from behind nearby bushes. The husband gave chase, but the man escaped.

DAMAGE MAY BE MORE THAN $100,000 IS BELIEF

Trees Are Uprooted—House Roofs Blown Off And Damaged—Telephone And Power Lines Are Severed By Storm

Business Section Of City Is Hit By Worst Blast In Years—Many Escape Injury As Wind Destroys Property

Lima was slowly emerging Monday afternoon from the wreckage caused by the tornado which swept thru the central portion of the city Sunday about 3:30 a. m., wrecking houses, tearing down telephone and power wires, uprooting trees and causing in all damage estimated at more than $100,000.

Crews of men under the direction of C. E. Bobenmeyer, city street superintendent, were on the streets immediately after the heavy rain storm Monday and were clearing away the trees blown down by the gale. Boy Scouts, who had offered their services to City Manager C. A. Bingham, were also aiding. City employes were also replacing broken boulevard light globes and bulbs.

The storm which assumed the proportions of a tornado, hit the city almost without warning. About 3 a. m. lightning in the west presaged the approach of a storm but it was not until a few minutes before the full fury of the wind was felt that those watching its approach were able to gauge its strength.

HEAVY CLOUDS

No funnel cloud was observed as the storm neared the city. Lightning revealed heavy clouds backed by white rain clouds. The high wind accompanied the black clouds and was followed immediately by the downpour. One person, who watched the storm from a window, reported that a funnel cloud was seen passing toward the southern part of the city.

Full effects of the storm seemed to have been centered in two paths. One led down W. Market and W. Spring-sts thru the center of the square and out E. Market and E. High-sts. The other path led along E. Second-st. In between these paths and also to the north of Wayne and North-sts damage was done by the wind.

W. Market-st seems to have borne the brunt of the storm. trees were uprooted by the wind, sidewalks were torn up, branches were separated from the trees and boulevard lights were shattered. E Market-st between Pine-st and the City hospital was also the scene of great damage as were portions of W. Spring-st, E. Second-st, W. North-st and adjacent streets.

GIRL HURT

Miss Esther Anderson, Spencerville, roomer at the Victor Steven home, 711 Holly-st, sustained a broken left arm when a falling tree crashed thru the roof of the house and trapped her in her bedroom as she attempted to escape the wreckage. The entire upper portion of the home was wrecked by the tree and by the heavy rain.

Approximately 600 telephones out of a total of 13,000 in the city were put out of order by the wind In most cases tree branches blown against wires caused the trouble altho nearly 50 poles were down. O J Neuman, assistant manager of the telephone company reported About 200 of these cases were reported Sunday and more than 100 repaired Most of the calls were being received Monday.

Lines of the Ohio Power Co were hard hit Six transformers were blown down and 5,000 families were without light and power Sunday morning, officials state Most damage came from trees blowing down over high-tension wires and ripping them from their supports Complaints received show that most of the damage occurred west of the city

REPAIRS MADE

Necessary repairs will have been made and lines will have been placed in first class condition by Monday evening officials state Several gangs of repairmen are working continuously

Service of the Lima City Street Railway Co was halted for varying lengths of time on the various lines depending upon the amount of damage to wires and lines F A Bundy, manager said Monday

Immediately that the car operators reported for work Sunday morning one car full and a replacement man was sent out with a car on each line with orders to go as far as possible On their return with reports as to condition the workmen were dispatched to the various places

W Market-st and especially that section near Jamestown proved the greatest source of trouble An Ohio Power Co "hot wire" at the street intersection delayed repairs as railway workmen were forced to protect the large crowd of passersby from it A pole near the switch was also down

TRACTION LINE HIT

Service was restored in full shortly after 1 p m in alike on some lines cars had been operating since earlier in the morning.

No trouble was experienced thru lack of power.

Interurban lines were hit by the storm. Cars on the Western Ohio north were out of commission all day and the first car got thru from Wapakoneta late in the morning. The first car to Toledo on the Lima-Toledo line did not get thru until late in the day. Trees were over the line at Ottawa and other places. The first I. C. & E. car got thru about 9 a. m. and little trouble was experienced on the Ft. Wayne line.

B. & O. trains arriving from the south were impeded by the storm. Washouts near Piqua made the train due here at 11:55 a. m. more than three hours late. Other trains were nearly on time. The Pennsylvania system reported no trouble Wires were down along the B. & O and some slight trouble with signal apparatus was noted by the Pennsylvania.

Trees were uprooted at various places thruout the city. Most trouble was seen at the Kerr property on W. Market and Pierce-sts where trees are down and an iron fence smashed flat, the Bernhart home at Market-st and Jamestown av, where the sidewalk was broken by uprooted trees and a grape arbor was torn down, the section of Market-st between Baxter-st and the Timmerman garage and on E Second-st

LAWNS DAMAGED

W. Market-st and portions of E Market-st were literally covered with trees and branches after the storm had cleared away. Lawns of many of the most expensive homes in the city were strewn with branches and beautiful trees that have made Lima famous thruout northwestern Ohio were broken or leveled to the ground.

At the N. L. Michael home on W Market-st one tree was hurled to the ground and in falling broke many of the branches from one on an adjoining yard At the Stiver home on W. Spring-st the sidewalk was out of place due to the blowing over of trees.

Glass windows were broken in the Overland garage, the Stutzbaker garage the Rowland furniture store, all on W. Market-st, the Lima Securities Co, the Harnett Beauty shoppe on Elizabeth-st, the Crow Gun Shop and the Schmidt Electric store on E Elizabeth-st, the Y. M. C. A. building the K of C building and houses on E Second-st.

Roofs were the special objects attacked by the wind. All portions of the city were affected by the wind and chimneys were turned to the ground

ROOF TAKEN

At the home of Carl Komp on Jean Court, the roof was taken from the house and dropped into the street. No one was hurt but water damaged household furniture. Canvas was placed over the opening as soon as possible and further damage from rain halted.

Similar wreckage was s

BROWN SMOCKS FIGURE IN COOLIDGE BOOST

CLEVELAND — (By Associated Press) — Dressed in brown smocks, such as Calvin Coolidge wore on the farm when a boy going to school, members of the Vermont delegation — some of them neighbors and school friends of the president—have arranged to stage a demonstration in the Republican national convention Thursday immediately following the nomination of Coolidge.

The Vermont delegates will parade the convention hall, carrying canes made of wood cut on the Coolidge farm cow pasture near Plymouth, Vermont, and wearing the brown smocks, with the words "Coolidge Home Town Club" painted on the back in large letters Twelve hundred of the canes were brought to Cleveland today by the Vermont delegates.

"Keep Cool and Keep Coolidge," sung to a rollicking tune, will be the song of the delegates from the president's home state. They hope to make it the official song of the convention

The refrain to the song is

"So keep cool and keep Coolidge is the slogan of today

"Keep cool and keep Coolidge for the good old U S A..

"A lot of politicians cannot do a thing but knock.

"But Calvin Coolidge is a man of action and not talk

"So just keep cool and keep Coolidge, in the White House four years more

"We have a chance to do it in this year of twenty-four.

"He has been tried, he's never wanting, he's giving of his best.

"Keep cool and keep Coolidge is our country's mighty test."

The Coolidge campaign song has been printed on thousands of fans which will be distributed to the delegates and spectators.

The Vermont delegates also brought a gavel, made of wood cut from the Coolidge farm, which will be presented to Colonel John T. Adams with which to call the convention to order Tuesday morning.

...ON BEER FOR ...CK UPHELD

L... Declared Constitutional by Supreme Court

...IED UP BY BREWERS

...ion Ends Dispute of Three Years Standing

WASHINGTON — (By United Press — The supreme court today held the action of congress expressly forbidding the prescription of beer for medicinal purposes was constitutional.

Suits appealed to the court by the James Evards breweries and Edward and John Burke, Limited, to New York, were argued as one case to determine the authority of congress to deny by legislative act the privilege of drinking beer under a physician's prescription for its medicinal properties. Lower federal courts decided congress was within its constitutional powers. The brewers appealed on the ground the 18th amendment did not empower congress to forbid the use of any sort of liquor as a medicine. If beer was forbidden under a doctor's prescription, it was argued, spirituous liquors must also be forbidden under the same circumstances.

In arguing that the act was unconstitutional, counsel for the breweries contended that the 18th amendment while prohibiting the use of beer for beverage purposes, did not empower congress to deny the use of beer for medicinal purposes.

POWER OF CONGRESS

The value of beer as a medicine was not at issue in this case. The only question put to the supreme court was the power of congress to declare it unlawful to use beer as a medicine.

The decision today ended a dispute that began when Attorney General Palmer rendered an opinion March 3, 1921, that the 18th amendment did not prohibit the manufacture of liquors for medical purposes. Thereafter, on October 24, 1921, commissioner of internal revenue issued amended regulations providing a system of permits for the brewing and distribution thru doctors prescriptions of fixed quantities of beer. A month later congress passed the Willis-Campbell act, amending the national prohibition act to forbid expressly the use of beer for medicinal purposes. It was on this act that the court ruled today.

The opinion of the court was delivered by Justice Sanford, newest member of the supreme court bench.

STORM DAMAGE CLEARED UP

the home of Frank Johnson, cook at the Hotel Argonne. Johnson lives in S. Central-av in the second house on the west side of the street south of the Erie railroad tracks.

He, his wife and four children were in bed when the storm lifted the roof from their house and the rain poured down into the house. None of the family was injured but furniture is reported almost a total loss due to the rain. The family is now staying with relatives.

Roof covering the rear porches of the McBrth-apts, W. North-st, was lifted from its fastenings and imbedded into the main roof of the building.

At the Fidelity Coal & Supply Co., E. High-st, the shed covering tanks filled with sand and other building materials was blown to the ground, altho the tanks remained standing. Loss is several thousand dollars.

BARN WRECKED

Reports Monday stated that a farm building along the Marion-rd had been wrecked and cattle, horses and other stock quartered in it killed by the storm.

Wind lifted the roof from the building in the Public-sq in which the Princeton Clothing store and A. Kaplan's shop are located. Water ruined a large part of Kaplan's stock, he said Monday.

At the corner of Main and Wayne-sts the roof on the building in which the Dixie restaurant and Leonard's cigar factory are located was damaged by the gale.

A shed used for the storing of coal and supplies at the intersection of the D. T. & I. railroad and Kibby-st was demolished as was a blacksmith shop on N. Union-st between North and Wayne-sts.

A tent used by the Cadillac garage for the storage of used automobiles was partially blown down by the wind. No automobiles were in it at the time.

The front of the P. and Q. clothing store on the Public-sq was blown in and clothing considerably damaged, manager of the store reported.

Trenches of the intercepting sewer being dug by the Haddad-Karrel Co., were flooded by the rain and a tool shed was leveled to the ground by force of the storm.

POLES DOWN

Telephone poles that line the Cable-rd were broken or twisted by the force of the wind which then lifted and inflicted little damage to property at the west corporation line only to drop again near the intersection of Market and Cole-sts.

Other telephone poles between Lima and Beaverdam were down. These poles are those carrying the Toledo-Cincinnati wires and as each pole carries many cross arms, the force of the wind found it very easy to force them to the ground. Wires were broken in three or four places.

Telegraph service of the Western Union Telegraph Co. was diminished about 25 per cent by the storm. All business was handled, however, despite the handicap and the increased demands due to interruption in other forms of communication.

Signs in various portions of the city were damaged by the wind. A large portion of the sign on the top of the Lima Tea Co. was on the ground, the Diesel-Wemmer sign was leveled, the Rowland Co sign was twisted and bent and others similarly affected.

Garages to the number of 20 or more were damaged or destroyed by the storm. In many cases the automobile contained in them were harmed only slightly, however.

AUTO DAMAGED

An automobile in W Spring-st, parked on the street for the night was damaged when a tree was blown directly over it. Wreckage was cleared away early Sunday morning.

Six trees were blown down and the roof of an ice station razed from the balance of the building near the intersection of E. Elm-st and Shawnee-st. Wires were down on N. Main-st near the fire station there.

Roofs on houses in the '800 block on W. Elm-st were damaged by the wind but thru a strange twist of fate practically no expensive damage was done in Elm-st or the territory south in the western section of the city. High winds were experienced but trees were only slightly damaged.

At Kossuth a house was struck by lightning and entirely destroyed by fire, it was learned here. All furniture and other property was destroyed.

Farm lands thruout the county were flooded by the heavy rains of both Sunday and Monday. Farmers reported extensive damage to crops and it is feared that much of the corn that has been planted will be drowned out and will have to be replanted and that further work will be delayed for several days or a week.

G. O. P. SHOW TICKETS HIGH

CLEVELAND — (By Associated Press) — Ticket speculators were asking $150 to $350 for Republican convention tickets last night but prospective buyers were holding out for lower prices. At one hotel $1,000 was asked for a sergeant-at-arms badge which would give the wearer free range of the hall.

CITY TO BORROW $72,000

Banks to Loan $12,000 Monthly to Meet Payrolls

Legislation authorizing the city to borrow $12,000 monthly from banks to meet payrolls of the safety department will be presneted Monday night to city commissioners as a relief measure to prevent the wholesale discharge of safety department employes.

With the safety fund depleted this is the only means of the city to meet the financial deficit. Bankers have offered to loan the city $72,000 between now and January 1, 1925, City Manager Bingham stated Monday.

The city will issue notes and these notes will be honored by banks, which institutions will lay aside the monthly loans for this one purpose.

Solicitor Landis has the legislation ready for enactment and only the necessary formality will be gone thru in passage of the legislation which is expected to pass without opposition.

The city can not legally borrow more money as the limit has been reached. The notes will be considered moral debts and they will be refunded as soon as funds are available, Manager Bingham stated.

AMERICA LOSES CEDAR BUSINESS IN GERMANY

NUREMBERG, Germany — East Africa has replaced the United States as the source of supply of cedar for the Nuremberg pencil industry. This German industry, which centers here, has fully recovered from the after effects of the war, and in trade circles it is reported that the manufacturers have enough foreign orders on hand to keep the plants in full operation many months.

Both the cedar and the graphite for pencils are imported, the main graphite supply being found in Siberia. Previous to 1914 the cedar was imported principally from America and the West Indies, but the war upset the old channel of trade and new fields in East Africa have been developed.

MAN KLAN PICKS REPUDIATES IT

Senator Watson Says He's Not a Member

DECLARES IT TO BE PLOT

Wizard is on Job at Cleveland Convention

CLEVELAND—(By Associated Press)—Imperial Wizard H. W. Evans of the Ku Klux Klan, on his arrival from Atlanta today, came out with a declaration for Senator James E Watson of Indiana as the klan's candidate for vice president.

Evans made known the klan's position in the following statement:

"All of our boys thruout the nation will understand only one thing and that is Senator James E. Watson for vice president—flat.

"We will deny any responsibility for the defeat of the Republican party at the polls in November if Watson is not selected for vice president on the ground that he is the most available candidate to carry the middle western states which are necessary for the election of Coolidge."

Senator Watson of Indiana, immediately repudiated the statement issued by the imperial wizard. "I don't belong to the Ku Klux Klan," the senator said. "If they have issued a statement naming me, they have done it for the express purpose of injuring me."

DENIES STATEMENT

"Such a statement," Senator Watson added, "was made without my knowledge or consent and is wholly without authority from me or any one having the right to represent me."

Klan leaders at headquarters in the Statler hotel said that Dr. Evans' statement was "virtually an ultimatum" to President Coolidge and his followers that the senatorial group must not be ignored in connection with the vice presidential nomination.

Simultaneously it was announced that Walter Bossert, grand dragon of Indiana and imperial representative of twenty-one states, would be in charge of all klan activities at the convention.

"Will he be active for Watson?" the spokesman was asked.

A burst of laughter greeted this question.

"Will he be?" said several leaders. "He is as busy as can be right now."

Public headquarters are being maintained at the Statler, but Dr. Evans and several of his closest advisers have taken a private house in one of the fashionable sections of the city where they will hold their conferences.

RATES CHANGED

Express Charges Adjusted by Commission

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press)—Express rates thruout the country were ordered readjusted today by the interstate commerce commission, which authorized general increases in the eastern zone, approximating 8 per cent and slight reductions in the west and the south.

The decision was the result of a general investigation by the commission in which representatives of state railway commissions participated. Wide differences in rates between the southern, middle western, Rocky Mountain and Pacific coast zones were ordered brought more nearly to a common level.

The decision will be effective January 1, 1925.

WORLD COURT PLANK URGED BY WOMEN

LOS ANGELES — Resolutions urging both the Republican and Democratic parties to include planks in their platforms commending American adherence to the world court, and demanding absolute enforcement of the Volstead law, were presented to the biennial conference of the General Federation of Women's Clubs today.

The world court resolution declared that it is "self-evident war can be eliminated as soon as international justice can be established.

NO "BOBS" ALLOWED IN COLORADO PRISON

CANON CITY, Colo. — Warden Thomas J. Tynan, of the Colorado state penitentiary here, has issued a decree to the women prisoners that there shall be "No Bobs." Women arriving with bobbed hair are required to let it grow, according to the warden, who holds that there is something essentially feminine in graceful coils of hair, and that "incarceration is no reason why womanly qualities and virtues should not be emphasized.

ART COLLECTION VIEWED HERE

Deisel Co. Showing Landscapes of Noted Painter

Much interest has been shown in the art exhibit which is being held at the Deisel Co. store, hundreds of persons having viewed the display during the past three weeks.

There are approximately 50 oil paintings in the group, all the work of W. A. Carson, famous landscape artist. Carson spends the summer months sketching and applies the finishing touches during the winter season.

The collection, which is being exhibited here, includes some of the artist's most noted works, the majority of which are scenes in Colorado and Wyoming. The best known of these, perhaps, are the Famous Hole in the Wall Valley Ranch in Wyoming, Indian Sam's Roadhouse in northern Wisconsin, and Mt. Reiner from Slater's Lake. They have been declared by critics as most accurate pieces of art.

Other outstanding works in the group include a Venitian Sunset, a snow scene in the Maine Woods and a harvest scene in Indiana.

The exhibition, according to R. B. Dunn, general manager of the Deisel Co., is one of the first of its kind in this city and is well worth anyone's time to view. This is the final week of the display.

44 MEN ON TRIAL

Face Court on Riot Charges in Pennsylvania

EBENSBURG, Pa.—(By Associated Press)—A defense motion for separate trials for 44 men on a riot indictment which grew out of the fight between visiting Ku Klux Klansmen and residents of Lilly, Pa., on April 5, were denied by Judge Thomas B. Finletter in court here today.

After hearing the motion, Judge Finletter defied the severance, saying a joint trial was the ideal way in which to dispose of a riot case.

LITTLE DELAY IN SOLDIER BONUS IS EXPECTED

WASHINGTON — Failure of congress to pass the second deficiency appropriation bill carrying among other items one for administering the bonus law, was discussed by President Coolidge and Budget Director Lord today at a White House conference, after which it was indicated that the action was not expected to seriously delay operation of the compensation law. It has been pointed out by officials that several months must necessarily elapse before payments under the law could be satrted and that pending that time administrative expense would be the only necessity. Favorable action on the bill in December it was indicated after today's conference would meet the situation.

SOVIET - BALKAN PEACE AIMED

Russian Government Abandons Map Changing Policies

FATE RESTS ON PEOPLE

Delegates Flays Roumania for Seizure of Territory

LONDON—(By United Press)—"Russia wants peace in the Balkans; Moscow has abandoned 'map changing' policies of the old Czarist regime; therefore any talk about Russia starting an offensive and igniting the Balkin powder magazine is mere foolishness."

Christian Rakovsky, chief of the Soviet delegations here, gave this authoritative assurance in an exclusive interview with the United Press.

Rakovsky is assistant commissary of Foreign Affairs in the Soviet foreign office, and is the biggest Soviet leader who has ever officially visited England. Writer, diplomat and revolutionist, Rakovsky, who speaks five languages was president of the Soviet government in Ukrania before coming to London to conduct important negotiations with Ramsay Macdonald's labor government, which, he hopes, will lead to a solid understanding between the British empire and Soviet Russia.

Today in Western Europe, Rakovsky is known as Russia's mouthpiece.

"We have rejected the imperial policy to the Czarist government which was aiming at the subjugation of the Balkan peoples to its policies and its interests," Rakovsky declared.

"If the Czarist government were still existent and all the secret treaties were carried out, by which Constantinople and part of Thrace were ceded to the Czarist government, Roumania and Bulgaria would, in fact, be Russian provinces."

"We are not, however, indifferent to what takes place on our frontier. Not taking into account Roumania, which profited by our temporary weakness and has unlawfully seized Bessarabia (against which the United States has protested), a country of 130,000,000 population, a country like Russia, occupying the greater part of the Black Sea coast, cannot be disinterested in what takes place on the other side of the coast.

DEVELOPMENT POLICY

"We are in need of a stable peace, which is impossible if violence reigns amongst the Balkan peoples. On more than one occasion have sparks from the Balkans lighted all the powder magazines in Europe.

"The last Imperial war also began in the Balkans. Quite apart from the events of Serajevo, the war of 1914 was in fact the continuation of the Balkan wars of 1912-1913. The situation created in the Balkans as a result of the World War holds in embryo all future wars. The national question which was one of the pretexts of these wars, is not only unsolved, but has become still more complicated.

"Austria-Hungary was in an easier position to subjugate foreign nationalities, not only because she was a strong military state, but because she gave them a certain autonomy. It will be more difficult to do so far the states which have occupied the former Austria-Hungary and the European territory of Turkey.

"It is absurd, however, to think that we intend by force of arms to alter the map of Europe, and, in particular, the map of the Balkans. The peoples in whom national and social consciousness has awakened, are now less ready to tolerate foreign oppression, and will themselves settle their fate.

"The Soviet Union is faced by other tasks than that of war. The October revolution has been carried out in the name of the emancipation of the laboring masses, and the raising of their material and spiritual welfare is one of the first tasks of the Soviet government."

HUNDREDS SEARCH FOR MISSING BOY IN COLORADO

EVERGREEN, Colo. — Hundreds searched today for Robert Bishop, 6, son of W. H. Bishop, Denver, who wandered into the snowbound mountains near Echo Lake yesterday. The boy's tracks were followed in the snow.

The trail suddenly ended at a place where William B. Head, Denver jeweler, disappeared last fall.

Authorities believe a maniac recluse may have been responsible for both disappearances. A bleached skeleton, thought to be Head's, was found in a gully near the lake.

10,000 INDIANS IN POW WOW

Great Gathering is Held at Tuisa, Oklahoma

TULSA, Okla. — (By United Press)—Ten thousand Indians held their first national pow wow here today.

Not since Manhattan Island sold for $25 and a few quarts, has the red man held such a formidable gathering.

Blanketed braves from the hills of Wyoming and the plateaus of New Mexico, mingled with the plutocratic Osages.

The Osages made rich by oil arrived in costly limousines. They were stylishly dressed and wore costly finery in contrast to their poorer cousins who donned their tribal garb.

Hundreds of the visiting braves, clinging to their customs of their forefathers, brought their squaws. The latter, some with papooses strapped to their backs, set the tepees in order, hung an iron pot over the fire and prepared for the family meal of "jerked beef," hunks of which were hung from the tepee poles to dry.

The Indians, dressed in the tribal costumes and head dresses will parade the streets of Tulsa tomorrow.

Business sessions of the convention will be held Wednesday afternoon.

Among the prominent visitors are McKinley Horse Chief Little, son of the Chief of the Ponca tribe, who wears a head dress valued at $10,000; Bacon Rind, picturesque Osage; Henry Snake, Ponca Indian and leader of the Ponca muscle dancers.

Joe Red Bird of the Iriquois tribe of Montreal traveled the greatest distance to attend the convention.

Tulsa took a half holiday so that all the "white brothers and paleface sisters" could attend the Indian ball game in which 24 on each side participate. An Indian ball game is declared to be a very strenuous affair.

In the game the goals are 300 yards apart and the ball is touched only with a pair of clubs each Indian carries. The game requires much skill and tremendous endurance on the part of the players.

DEATH PROBED

Body of Boy Found Crammed in Suit Case

PHILADELPHIA — (By United Press) — Police of surrounding cities today were asked to aid authorities here in solution of the "suit case murder" of a flaxen-haired three-year-old boy, whose body was found crammed in a suit case on a doorstep here Sunday.

The child apparently had been dead about 12 hours, police said. The jugular vein was cut and the body badly bruised. There was no clue to its identity.

Police believed the suit case with the body was brought here from another town and were working on a theory the child may have been kidnaped and murdered when the plans of its abductors went awry.

NEW EVIDENCE IN SLAYING FOUND

Notes to be Used Against Leopold and Loeb

MORE WITNESSES SOUGHT

State Plans for Testimony as to Sanity

CHICAGO—(By United Press)—Squads of officers from the office of State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe invaded the University of Chicago campus today in search of students able to testify that Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, confessed slayers of Robert Franks, 14-year-old school boy, were sane.

Believing that their case against Leopold and Loeb is "absolute," Crowe's aides started a secondary "defense against the defense." Assured that Clarence Darrow, chief defense counsel, will attempt to save the two young college graduates from the gallows by proving them insane, the state is making effort to refute the testimony of alienists.

"We will get as many college friends of these boys as possible," an attache of Crowe's office said, "to tell what they know of Leopold and Loeb."

SCRIBBLED NOTES

Crowe's staff announced they had "new evidence" against the young intellectuals, who "just for the fun of it" kidnaped and killed young Franks.

The "new evidence," it was said, consists of pencil-scribbled notes, written by both Leopold and Loeb, when their confessions were being read. Each took notes of the other's confession in order to check back on slight discrepancies.

The notes, much like those taken by college students at a class room lecture, were written hastily and abbreviated as the confessions were read to them. Loeb listened attentively to Leopold's confession, making memoranda of points on which he differed. Leopold did the same when Loeb's confession was read.

$2,000 DAMAGE IN STORM

Wind, Water Leaves Wreckage Thruout County

OTTAWA — (Special) — Damage estimated at $2,000 was caused by wind and rain in the severe storm which passed over Putnam-co early Sunday morning.

Fields were flooded, trees uprooted, buildings unroofed and windows shattered by the force of the wind which at times reached the violence of a tornado.

Traction car service was interrupted until 2 p. m. Sunday due to tearing down of power lines. A tree fell over a power line of the Lima-Toledo Railway Co., near the interurban station here and broke the wire.

A window in the apartment occupied by Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Aubry was blown in and a roof on a garage owned by Edward Wilson was blown off. A number of shade trees and fruit trees were uprooted and covered the streets of Ottawa.

SMITH PAT ON BEER ISSUE

Presidential Candidate for Revision of Dry Law

NEW YORK — (By Associated Press) — A revision of the Volstead act to allow states so disposed to legalize the sale of light wines and beers is urged by Governor Alfred E. Smith in the first public statement on the subject issued since he became a candidate for the Democratic nomination for president. Governor Smith in replying yesterday to an inquiry regarding his stand on prohibition, also said he believed the Ku Klux Klan to be "contrary to the very principles upon which this country was founded."

He said he favored having congress fix a maximum of alcoholic content, "based upon science and sound reasoning," allowing each state to establish for itself whatever alcoholic content it chose so long as it did not overstep the limit set in the national law.

The amount of light wines and beer to be sold in states that chose to legalize the traffic as well as the manner and media of their sale, should be left to the states themselves, said the governor. Whatever alcoholic strength is made legal in future, the saloon has gone for good, the governor believes.

He urged strengthening of the federal laws with regard to interstate commerce and the importation of strong liquors. He said that most of the liquor consumed in this state was smuggled from foreign countries.

The Last Veto

Three hundred thousand postoffice employees of the nation, including the efficient personnel of the Lima office, were effectively denied increase in pay, Saturday, by President Coolidge. The veto of the postal bill was the third made by the President.

It is questionary whether the President was justified in this last veto. Our postal department is about the only government enterprise to which the country may point with pride. Its employees should rank in pay with railroad workers. They don't.

The veto prevents increase in salaries of $68,000,000, for which sum Congress, in its childish, inefficient and political way, had made no provision. It was as much because of this, as because of the higher salaries, the President killed the measure.

Summing up the acts of this retiring congress, it took five months to create two bills—the new income tax law and the bonus bill. The latter is virtually ineffective as no provision for paying the bonus was enacted before adjournment.

Republicans at Cleveland will point with pride to the Coolidge administration; yet the very pointers did nothing but destroy confidence and kill business during their six months in Senate and House.

Three vetoes by the White House tells stunningly what the President thinks of this Congress. Voters should tell them in strong terms what they think of it. The safest, sanest, most sensible vote to cast in November is against everybody connected with this blustering do-nothing session.

Give Baby a Chance

Most people seem to have the notion that a baby is just a stomach with arms and legs attached.

As long as baby's stomach behaves and its food is assimilated, the average parent is satisfied. Food gets chief attention. It can't get too much, but—

There is more to a baby than stomach, legs, arms.

A baby has a liver, heart, lungs, brain, nerves, thyroid, blood vessels. All these must grow, bud out into full blossom. They are just as important as the stomach, sometimes more so.

Baby's heart, lungs and brain should get fully as much attention as his digestive apparatus.

More than two and a half million babies will be born this year in these United States. Food is all-absorbing topic with most young mothers. Each year, fewer mothers can nurse their young. Each year, babies become more nervous—jumpy.

What's the reason? Doctors say the race is paying the price for something, they're not sure what. Fast living, too much nervous rush and hustle; these are at the roots of it all.

While watching baby's food, don't forget that his lungs are working, taking oxygen from the air and performing other duties. See that he gets plenty of oxygen—fresh air. He should have a room to himself, where he'll not be inhaling poisons from the lungs of his parents.

Watch his nerves. Give them a chance. Never startle him by yelling "Boo!" It's cute, the way he jumps. But it's weakening to nerves that are just beginning to function.

Starting a baby quickens his pulse, throws a strain on his heart. He should always be addressed in a low tone. Keep him where it is as quiet as possible. Come into his line of vision slowly, never with startling suddenness.

Above all, never waken him from sleep to show him off to visitors. Sleep is what he needs, even as much as food. Plenty of sleep, quiet, fresh air and sunshine (with the glare never directly in his eyes or reflected)—give baby these, and in future years they'll be worth more to him than a legacy of money.

The lifetime health of most people is determined in the cradle.

Clean Up, Commissioners

Charges are made again that Allen-co's expensive comfort station at the court house is in a filthy condition. The same charges were made and found to be well founded a few months ago. At that time the county commissioners said they would see that the station was kept in good condition.

It appears that the comfort station, a place that should be kept sanitary and tidy, gets about as much care as the grounds about county buildings in the city. These are a disgrace to the county and city.

When we go into county seats of other counties and see the beautiful lawns and flowers about court houses and various other county buildings, we wonder why Allen-co falls short in this respect. It is a small matter to keep grass growing and flowers blooming and they add to the appearance of property more than anything else.

An election is coming on and the boys will be out campaigning for re-election, so we can't expect too much this summer. We do hope that with the election over, the commissioners will start a clean-up campaign early next summer and get the lawns in shape and the comfort station renovated. In the meantime, they might do a little temporary work at the "dugout" at Main and North to get by the board of health for the present season. We'd hate to see Doc Sutter go up there and padlock it.

Book Agents

More bad news for Lima folk. Several colleges have started courses to teach book agents how to ply their trade. We're in favor of a prohibition law on that. But most of this training is for those who will sell from behind counters, which will not be so bad. That job requires education.

We are told that the public is thinking more; that it is buying better books. A good sign. One contention that the movies and radio would reduce the sale of books has been shattered. Instead of curtailing sales, they are increasing them.

SECOND WIND

Every real boy knows what second wind is. The athlete who is well trained gets his second wind just about the time the poorly trained runner drops out "winded," about three minutes after the start of a race, in the third quarter mile stretch. It's a grand and glorious feeling, if I may borrow the expression of Mr. Briggs. It is a sudden relief from the distress or agony of breathlessness, the movements of the chest and belly being suddenly freed of seeming restraint and amplified, the excursions of the diaphragm being increased, and the ventilation of the blood by the lungs being consequently improved. At the time of second wind the right ventricle of the heart, which pumps blood to the lungs, expands or dilates sufficiently to accommodate the increased volume of blood being pumped. It is right here that the vital question of athletic training in youth intrudes itself. If the athlete has been intelligently trained, under the control and direction of a scientific physical director and not the uneducated amateur or professional "trainer," that too often holds such a post, the heart is hypertrophied and the enlarged heart muscle is free to recover from the stretching or dilation. The poorly trained heart muscle lacks this vitally essential capacity and the youth who undertakes such contests with the inadequate training which the quack "trainer" gives endangers his whole future health and career.

No boy of high school age should ever be permitted to enter a mile race or even a 440 or 100 meter race, for these are tests of a man's endurance and the most careful training is necessary for safety, to say nothing of success in such contests, and rarely can the growing boy have the physical training these tests demand without risk of impairing his general vitality. We must not lose sight of the most important thing in youth—growth and development—and it is most unwise to divert a boy's energy to other and minor pursuits during this period of his life. Physical education he should have every day of his life, compulsory physical training as a requisite for promotion from grade to grade in school. But let it be intelligent physical training, under the undivided direction of the health and physical instructors in the school.

Second wind and endurance are mainly questions of the development, enlargement and physiological dilatability of the heart. Of course other factors enter into the question of second wind. It isn't wholly a matter of furnishing more oxygen to the blood. Inhalations of oxygen from a tank afford only partial or temporary relief to the breathlessness brought on by severe exertion. Probably there is some reaction on the part of the adrenal glands, whose internal secretion or hormone has an effect in the blood and tissues comparable with the spark in a gasoline engine—increases oxidation or combustion. The role of the adrenal system is an important one in athletic training and in contests of speed and endurance. Like the development and safe dilatability of the heart, it is probably subject to intelligent training.

The short races, sprints, tests of speed but not of endurance, are the kind for high school boys to enter.

JUST FOLKS

BY EDGAR A. GUEST

THE PESSIMISTIC GOLFER

I believe in being cheerful, I'm opposed to being tearful,
And I think a laugh is better than a whine;
And I'd rather sing and whistle than go round a human thistle
With a lot of thorns protruding from my spine.
When mirth's kettle starts to bubble, I won't add a dash of trouble,
Or spoil it with some petty tale of woe;
But I cannot help complaining when I find it always raining
On the only day when golfing I can go.

I won't carry on my sorrows thru a string of glad tomorrows,
And I won't unload my burdens in a room
Where the laughter gay is ringing. I won't interrupt the singing
To poison all the gladness with my gloom.
Tho I've lost my hard-earned dollar I'll not even make a "holler,"
You will never guess there's hatred in my veins;
But I'll say my joy is frozen when on Wednesday, which I've chosen
For a round of golf, it regularly rains.

When good fellows meet together, I don't growl about the weather,
And I tell no hard-luck stories, tho I could;
There's no sense in vainly fretting at the sort of luck we're getting,
In the end we'll find the most of it is good.
To my trouble I will buckle, and I'll meet it with a chuckle,
But I suffer doubts and pessimistic pains,
And I find my faith is shaken, when the one day I have taken
For a round of golf, it regularly rains.

Both wet and dry planks are being advocated but they are already subject to a great deal of discussion and maneuvering.

One of the principle platform-fights is expected to find its source in the proposed constitutional amendment to give equal rights before the law to men and women.

A conference of South Dakota delegates was called today to decide whether to place the name of Senator Hiram Johnson formally for the presidential nomination. Despite his action in releasing all delegates pledged to him, S. X. Way, first of the South Dakota arrivals, said the California senator would receive their vote since they were bound by their election to cast the state ballots for him.

The LaFollette delegates from Wisconsin, who also will cast a block of votes against President Coolidge, were called together today to take final action on the platform proposals they will "fight for" in the convention.

DAUGHERTY FIGHT SEEN

Delegates and confirmed convention visitors who have found the pre-convention proceedings tame this year in comparison with choice memories of past battles for the big prizes, turned hopeful eyes toward the caucus tonight of the Ohio delegation because of statements by friends of former Attorney General Daugherty that they intended to make him delegation chairman.

Opponents of the Daugherty move including some who would rather have Senator Willis as delegation head, said it was "foolhardy" and likely to start a fight that would more than discount the purpose of its sponsors to demonstrate to the nation that the former attorney general remains a considerable factor in the Republican party in Ohio.

Daugherty arrived last night from Columbus to sit as a delegate at large.

C. O. S. (Dad) Attenbury of Little Rock, Ark., stepped into the increasingly colorful convention picture last night, determined despite his 83 years to be on hand.

"I'm not a delegate" he said "but I make delegates. I've attended conventions since Grant was nominated in '68."

FALL OF NEW FRENCH CABINET EXPECTED SOON

PARIS — The new cabinet headed by Francois Marsal is not expected to outlive its presentation to the chamber of a presidential message from M. Millerand.

It is expected that the ministry will be overturned immediately on a motion from the left attacking Millerand for his intervention in the recent elections.

The president of the republic, then is expected to resign and Francois Marsal will continue as premier until the result of the presidential election is known—probably Friday.

KATO TO FORM NEW JAPANESE CABINET

TOKIO — Viscount Taka-Akira Kato tonight accepted the command of Prince Regent Hirohito to form a new cabinet asking, however, that he be given a few days. His ministry will succeed that of former Premier Kipoura, and will be a coalition affair according to the vernacular newspapers.

Premier Kato conferred last night with Baron Shidehara. It is understood that if the latter does not take the foreign office, he will reurn to Washington as the Japanese ambassador.

DELEGATES ARRIVE AT CLEVELAND IN SHOALS

The convention soup thickens. Will Cressy is right on hand stirring it up. Here's the third yarn of his great political series for The Lima News. Tomorrow's the opening day.

By WILL M. CRESSY

The delegates are arriving. They come in shoals, like fish, looking for bait.

You can classify every one of them. Because each one is in a class by himself. City Slickers, Village Leaders, Small Town Bosses, Rubes, Boobs, Saints and Sinners, Patriots and Grafters and just plain Perpetual Delegates.

But they are a polite, gallant lot. Yesterday in a crowded street car there was a poor, tired, short, dumpy little woman trying to connect with a strap way up above her head. She could not make it. And a long, lank southerner got up, reached for the strap with one hand, took her hand with his other hand, placed it in the strap, raised his big black hat—and resumed his seat.

One night John Royal gave them a free midnight show down at Keith's five-million-dollar theater. And it cost him two hundred dollars to put the theater together again after they got thru with it.

Another night they had a dance and one big Texas chap was telling his first, last and only partner what a hit she was with him.

"Why, dog-gone it, Sis, out of this whole herd of heifers you are the only one I could see. I never give another one even a look. Why, do you know, I never seen a fat lady sweat as little as you do."

And every one of them is plugging for his own home state in some way or other.

The Vermont boys wear little banners announcing, "We'll Furnish 'Em if You'll Elect 'Em."

The Boys from Utah state, "I Regret That I have but One Wife's Vote to Give to My Country."

The Pittsburgers, all wear "smoked" glasses.

The Philadelphians all wear liberty bells in their buttonholes. They are all cracked. The bells I mean.

Many of St. Paul's delegation speak English as well as Swedish.

The Minneapolis Norwegians do not recognize them, however.

Every Florida delegate wears a grapefruit tied in his buttonhole, carries an atomizer throwing out Florida Water, and distributes price lists of St. Petersburg real estate.

The Atlanta delegation wear buttons stating "Cotton Is King." One of them told me that Atlanta had sold more cotton sheets and pillowcases in the past three years than any other city in the U. S.. And he says Atlanta is also the healthiest city. But I don't know. Charlie Morse said it almost killed him. And so did Dave Lamar.

A colored delegate from Miss., has just discovered that B. V. D's are garments. He says that in Missi-sippi B. V. D. means "Better Vote Democratic."

LODGE IS TARGET OF WOMEN

Wrath Visited on Senator at Cleveland

BY DOROTHY SHUMATE

CLEVELAND — (By United Press)—When Channing H. Cox was elected governor of Massachusetts last fall, the managers of the Democratic campaign against him, wrote and told him that he could thank the women voters for his election. When Governor Cox today was elected chairman of the Massachusetts delegation to the Republican national convention, some of the delegation whispered in his ear that he could thank the women again.

It isn't that the women love Governor Cox more; it is that they love Senator Henry Cabot Lodge less.

Ever since suffrage became an issue, the political minded women of the codfish state have been drifting away from the loyalty that is supposed to be due their eldest statesman. The drift has carried them a long way—so far that today while they were at it they helped finish Mr. Lodge completely so far as the present convention is concerned. They even refused to let him have a place on the resolutions committee. Instead they threw their support to Speaker Gillette. The women have six members in the Massachusetts delegation, exactly one half the total—and they are there not entirely as an expression of old-fashioned Boston courtesy. They are a real power in the state. They have their own ideas of what constitutes a good Republican this year, their idea being that it is one who supports President Coolidge on all occasions. That lets Lodge out and by the same token, the women are now engaged in keeping him out.

The Massachusetts women who already have an equal representation on the state central committee are taking a very active part in the effort to obtain equal representation on the Republican national committee. The Democratic party has given this to the women and the fight for it at this convention of the Republicans is decidedly earnest. Having easily lined up their own members of the rules committee, they are actively engaged in pledging the rules committee members from other state delegations.

RIVERS OVERFLOW BANKS

Service Paralyzed, Trees Down —and Homes Damaged

DELPHOS — (Special)—Paralyzed light and power service, uprooted trees, telephone poles blown down, flooded lowlands, damaged houses and a general scene of wreckage was left in the wake of a severe wind and electrical storm which swept over Delphos and Van Wert at 3:30 a. m. Sunday.

Preceding the rain, which at its climax resembled a cloud burst, was a violent windstorm which whirled thru the two towns like a tornado, exacting the heaviest toll which is expected to reach between $3,000 and $5,000.

The Auglaize river, three miles east of here, flooded its banks and the Little Auglaize, two miles west of here, is flowing thru bottom lands and fields

STREETS FLOODED

Poles and lines of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., between Delphos and Van Wert on the Lincoln Highway, are practically all down. A huge greenhouse is almost a total wreck.

Streets of Delphos and Van Wert resembled small streams Water flowed thru them to a depth of nearly a foot in Van Wert. Much of the flood within the city came from Town creek, which overflowed its banks, flooding cellars and in some instances reached to ground floors.

Only slight damage resulted at Paulding. Dozens of trees were blown down. The Maumee four miles east of there, flooded its banks but caused little damage.

FROCK TAFFETA

After the tube and pencil silhouette that have reduced all women to an identical type, this smart taffeta frock with its full skirt and regular waistline, is a pleasant novelty. Cartridge pleats and peasant embroidery in crude colors on a white ground are used to excellent effect. The collar is very smart.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart:

About two months ago, I met a young man I had known for years during our childhood. We were playmates and schoolmates then.

We went together for several weeks then he quit coming. I have not seen him for three weeks I don't know why he treats me this way. We had dates three nights a week.

He has a nice sister and we are friends. I see her most every day but I hate to ask her why he doesn't come to see me.

I am planning to have a party, but that is three weeks away and I am afraid I can't wait that long to see him. I would like to have him come to the party but maybe he wouldn't.

What shall I do? Please don't tell me to go out with other boys. I can't as long as I have him on my mind. He is 21 and I am 18.

FORGET-ME-NOT.

Don't take the matter so seriously, Forget-me-not, and allow it to spoil your good times. A few weeks is not very long. Perhaps he has been busy or has his time taken up with other friends. You can hardly expect to monopolize all his time. Impossible as it may seem, my friend, you can put this young man out of your thoughts if you find he is no longer interested in you.

But then, wait, with what patience you can, until time for your party. Invite him, of course, and then if he does not come, or if you find that he is no longer interested, make the best of the matter.

Dear Miss Smart:

I am a young girl of 19 years of age and I am not married. Miss Smart, could you tell me how old Charles Buttler is and where he lives and what his address is? Also, where is Grant Neuman? How old is he?

I am in the second year of high school. Should I quit or finish?

How late should I stay out at night? Is it polite to ask a boy to take you to a picture show or in an ice cream parlor?

I weigh 165 pounds. How much should I weigh? GOOD-BYE.

I am sorry but I can find no information about the two men you mention. Perhaps if you tell me what work they are connected with, I could investigate further.

Do not think of dropping your school work, unless it is necessary. Finish high school and if possible, go to a higher school. You are far behind your class but work diligently and hard and make it a point to graduate as soon as possible.

Eleven o'clock is quite late enough for you to be out, that is, of course, when there is no school the next day. Yes, invitations to the shows and to have refreshment, should come from the young man.

You should weigh 125 pounds.

Dear Miss Susie:

We are 16 and 18 years of age. How late should we stay out at parties?

How can one gain friends?

Will the shingle bobb be in style very long?

Are silk scarfs being worn this summer?

Does a diamond ring from a boy friend mean an engagement?

PEACHES AND CREAM.

Eleven o'clock is quite late enough for you girls to be out at parties.

One gains friends by being agreeable, friendly, keeping a pleasing personality at all times and of course, keeping their own personal appearance as attractive as possible. The quotation used often—"To have good friends, be one," is one to be remembered.

Yes, the shingle bob style of hair would be in style during the summer at least.

Yes, the silk, woolen and chiffon scarfs are all popular at this time.

A young girl does not accept jewelry from a young man unless they are engaged and then when he gives her a diamond, it is to be worn on the engagement finger as "the" engagement ring.

TO P. D. Q.

I am sorry, but I can not do as you ask thru this column. I would advise inserting a classified ad in The Lima News.

Tested to make a close snug seal

STRETCH and "set" are the two important things a jar rubber must do if it is to make an air-tight seal.

It must stretch just enough to slip easily over the neck of the jar and snap back to its original size. Then it must be able to "set", to grip firmly the neck of the jar. Only if the rubber will "set" perfectly can you be sure of a safe snug seal for your pack.

"U. S." Jar Rubbers come to you thoroughly tested for stretch and "set." They are made by the United States Rubber Company—largest rubber organization in the world—to meet every demand of modern canning.

"Everything, Pete. You are very kind, Pete, what part of England are you from? Your accent is not greatly different from the men of my own country."

He looked straight at her. "Liverpool. But I've been in America so long, in the North, it is queer my accent would be anything but Siwash."

He bade her good night and soon vanished into the murk of storm. She sat a while with Ivan, listening to the beat of the rain on the tent.

"Dorothy," he asked suddenly, "does this land take hold of you?"

She waited an instant, half-dreaming, before she attempted to reply. "It gets my imagination, some way," she confessed at last. "It has given me the queerest moods, the strangest thoughts—all day long. How does it affect you?"

He moved nearer, groping for her hand. He caught it at last, and his throbbed with the fierce pulse of his arteries. "Do you want to know how it affects me?" It just seems to peel me down—to strip off a veneer of civilization that I've picked up somewhere and just leave the basic part of me. That part of me is somthing that you yet don't fully know—and I'm some way afraid to have you fully know it." His voice was subdued, and he spoke with evident difficulty. "Tonight I'm the man of the Ural Mountains. The Occident falls away—and leaves only Asia.

A dim fear trickled thru her, a sense of estrangement and at the same time of deep fascination; and she struggled to regain her poise and self-confidence. "Yet this isn't Asia," she said.

"I don't know. It's so far west that it is almost east. It's like my own Siberia. Dorothy, did you notice Pavlof's attitude toward me?"

No. Not particularly."

"It's like a slave for his master. I am not boasting, Dorothy. That man has enough echo of Asia in him to see Asia in me, and he bows before it. But I haven't anything on earth in common with that big guide, Pete. You, on the the other hand, seem to get along well with him. You instinctively like him."

"The East is East and the West is West," she quoted thoughtfully.

"That's it. Your Pete is an Anglo-Saxon—the most dominant of all Western peoples. I am a Russian—strictly speaking. I am a Mongol, and Oriental blood has slanted my eyes. There's no use trying to hide that fact from you, even if I were not proud of it. Pete and I could never understand each other in a minute if the gallows and several other thing's didn't drop a shadow between."

"Yet—I am an Anglo-Saxon," she told him.

"Yes." He hesitated. "But also you are a woman. We men of the East do not look on a woman as we look on men. I don't love you for what you racially are. Racial differences don't have to interfere in a love like ours—in a marriage such as ours would be, that would move like a dream—in a garden."

He took his violin from its case and held it a while, lovingly, in his white hands. He began to play for her, softly.

The composition he chose was one that she had never heard before: a wild, haunting thing in the minor that she guessed was a folk melody of his own Urals. He was not playing to her, tonight. He was simply seeking expression of his own unfathomable, Oriental soul. As always his technique was flawless; yet tonight he played with a fire and an ardor she had never heard in him before.

Ivan played on and caught the soul of this North in the wild, plaintive tones. The music mingled with the sound of the storm, the rain lashing the tent, the long shriek of the wind, the beat of the waves on the shore.

CHAPTER IX

An Incident of the Trail

Dorothy slept late, and Pete cooked her a special breakfast when he heard her stirring in the tent. She saw with relief that the worst of the storm had passed thru the night.

When Pete took the crude, tin eating utensils from her hand, he paused, for a moment, uncertainly. "Mrs. Newhall, this camp is in need of fresh meat," he began rather shyly. "We may be here a few days yet, and a nice venison would go pretty good. I'm wondering if you and Mr. Ishmin would like to go into the interior with me today, and see if we couldn't get a caribou."

An Intimate Story of Innermost Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

LETTER FROM WALTER BURKE TO RUTH ELLINGTON

MY DARLING:

At last I can say these words to you—words that have been singing in my heart for all the years since I have known you—my darling! Now I have the right to call you that, and you have the right to listen to it, for you are free—free from that scoundrel who made you so unhappy.

I'm coming to claim you, dear. You knew that I would do that, didn't you, Ruth, the moment that I knew you had gotten your divorce? You knew that I would be only happy when I could hold you in my arms and look into your eyes and hear you tell me that you loved me.

Dear one, you have never told me this. In fact, as I write this letter, I grow a little cold for fear that you do not really love me. Oh, Ruth, I want you to love me, for I know all that your love would mean to the man to whom you gave it. No other woman in all the world would give so generously or have so much to give.

Do you know, dear, that I've only one great regret, and that is that in the years of my life before I knew you I made a semblance of love to many women; and now that I have found the Real Woman, now that I know that you are the one woman who can fill my life, I find a dearth in the English language to tell you of my great love for you.

It seems to me that I have rather sullied the words of love by using them unthinkingly to other women. I wish that there were other words more caressing, more sincere, more full of heartfelt devotion to use for you alone.

Oh, Ruth, a man makes such a mistake in frittering away his emotions to those other women, whom he knows absolutely will only fascinate him for a time. He should save that love that he has made a by-word as does a woman save her devotion, her trust, her faith, her loyalty for the man to whom she at last gives herself entirely.

You will trust me, will you not, dear? For I need perfect faith and perfect trust to keep me faithful and trustworthy.

There are men who believe that jealousy and doubt are always a part of a great love, but I am not that kind. The woman who loves me must believe in me entirely, for I know that I will come as nearly as I can to living up to her ideals, good or bad.

Ruth darling, as I write this, I see you coming toward me. I reach out my arms to you across the miles of space. I feel your soft body within these arms, crushing itself close, close to mine. I see your eyes opening to let me see the love that lies within them. I am dreaming of the greatest joy I have ever known.

Ruth, do not disappoint me. I could not bear it. I want you so. I am coming to get you and take you and keep you mine—mine, for ever and ever.

WALTER.

HE SAYS IT WAS BIG SURPRISE

Declares the Plant Juice Ended Stomach Trouble Almost At Once

DESERVES HIGHEST PRAISE

"I surely was surprised but it is the absolute truth that your Plant Juice relieved me of my stomach trouble almost at once and I haven't had a particle of suffering with my stomach since," declared Mr. James M. Jackson.

MR. JAMES M. JACKSON

well known traveling salesman living at 503 West Sixth street, Fort Worth, Texas, while talking recently with The Plant Juice Man.

"I always enjoyed fine health up until about two years ago," Mr. Jackson continued. "At that time, my stomach suddenly seemed to become all shot to pieces. I got so I could hardly eat and what little food I did eat would cause me to suffer afterward from gas and acid in my stomach, indigestion and shortness of breath. I felt tired and worn out all the time; lost 25 pounds and finally got so bad that it seemed like it would be impossible for me to continue over my territory.

"Of course, I tried many different medicines and treatments but it seemed like nothing would help me and I tell you I surely was discouraged about myself and then one day one of my customers told me about Plant Juice. He said his wife had taken Plant Juice for trouble similar to mine and he begged me to try it. Well, I'll admit that I didn't have much faith in any medicine for I had tried so many without results but to please these people I got a bottle and started taking it. I certainly was surprised because it seemed to reach my trouble right away and I went out to a restaurant and ate a big, hearty meal and it didn't cause me any suffering with my stomach at all. I continued taking Plant Juice and it seemes now like I have a new stomach and can eat anything and never suffer from indigestion or shortness of breath. I have gained 20 pounds and simply feel like a 3-year-old and I think Plant Juice deserves the highest kind of praise."

She gets just the degree of heat she wants for canning

Can the kitchen be cool when the stove is hot?

YOU have to have plenty of heat for cooking. But in hot weather you want the range going only when you are actually using it. What is equally important, you will find that the heat in a Florence Oil Range goes into the cooking, as the flame is close up under the cooking, and not into the metal of the stove or out into the room.

Make this test: Go to a store where the Florence is sold—department, furniture, or hardware store. Ask the salesman to light it. When it is going full force, feel the metal of the stove; and notice how cool it is right beside the range.

The Big Burners

The heat in the Florence burners is close up under the cooking where it is most wanted.

A blue gas-like flame

To start the Florence Range, just touch a match to the Asbestos Kindler. In a few moments there is an intensely hot blue flame, close up under the pot. You can regulate the heat to any degree and cook any dish that you can on a gas or coal range.

The vapor from kerosene is what burns. It is not a wick flame, such as you see in the ordinary oil lamp. Kerosene is a cheap fuel.

A spotless kitchen

With the Florence Range there is no soot, no ashes, no shaking or carrying of heavy fuel. The Florence itself is a beauty with its porcelain enamel, black frame and nickel trimmings.

The Florence oven, sold separately, is a marvel of efficiency. The "baker's arch" and patented heat distributor assure even cooking. A few minutes' examination of the Florence Range will show you how much it will mean in your household. Drop in at the store and see for yourself.

FlorenceLeveler

Attached to each leg of the stove, this device enables you to set the stove level on an uneven floor.

CHICAGO IS WITHIN A SINGLE GAME OF LEADING GIANTS

CUBS KEEP RIGHT ON WINNING BALL GAMES

The National league standing was not disturbed thru games played Sunday. The Giants won a five inning affair from the Pirates that much resembled a cinema of "Caught In the Storm", while the Cubs performed against the Robins in a fairly satisfactory manner. The burlesque was serious so far as it counts and the Giants are still in the lead. Just what is the matter with Pittsburgh is a question for the fates to decide. They're not playing ball, that's sure. The Cubs have so far won three stralght games which shows that they didn't come out from the west to do anything but win games. The sporadic uprising of these playful fellows proves anything but that. It has full sized earmarks of being genuine, and it is safe to say that McGraw is at least taking the situation seriously.

Cincinnati didn't play Sunday, the "towne" of the Peacemaker Penn, frowns and bubbles whenever Sabbath ball is mentioned, so baseball is not played in Philadelphia Sunday. It is stated that Hargraves and Roush have so far recovered that they will be back in the game, probably Tuesday, and this will have the effect of adding stamina. Roush has had a hard season so far as accidents are concerned. There are mighty few players that could fill his position as satisfactorily, if at all and he has been missed sorely. With Deubert, it is different. It is certain that the Reds have found a first baseman who is all things considered the find of the year. This is Rube Bressler. His hitting has been almost at par, and his fielding will compare with the veteran Deubert. Hendricks states that he will be retained at first because Deubert has been hitting lightly all season. With the old lineup Cincinnati will be in the running. There is only about four games' difference in the standing between fourth and first place.

But as the season grows, it is becoming more and more apparent that the Giants if they do lead to the finish will have battled harder than at any other time they have won a pennant. Its anyone's race at this time.

Wills Meets Madden In New York

BY FRANK GETTY

NEW YORK — (United Press) —Tonight, at Queensboro stadium, weather permitting the wraps come off a true dark horse of the ring and fans will learn whether Harry Wills, that Ethiopian enigma, represents a potential million dollars, or is headed back to the docks.

The big black, long kept in the background by broken hands and broken contracts, has become a sort of boogieman of fistiana.

Even that promising newcomer to Hollywood, Jack Dempsey, on his road to a million dollar gate, with Senor Firpo, chose a path around the wood where the black panther prowled.

Upon the willing shoulders of a stout-hearted Irish lad, one Bartley Madden, who meets Willis over the 15-round route tonight, if it doesn't rain, has been placed the task of deciding whether Harry is headed on up to fisite fortune or back to the wide spaces of the river front, where men are longshoremen.

The erstwhile Negro stevedore should stop Madden within eight rounds. Bartley never has been flattened for the long count. Wills should take him before the fight is half over.

The black's hands are pronounced strong again. This was about all that troubled him.

He possesses boxing skill of high degree, great strength, courage and finesse.

It is hard to figure Madden as any more than a trial horse, a muscular young man with a most unpleasant evening ahead of him.

Madden's admirers point out there is a pleasant if somewhat improbable prospect for the supposed sacrifice arising from the block and knocking for the demonstrator of Nordic supremacies, but the wise money says Wills should stop Madden, with odds of about 3 to 2 or 2 to 1, that the fight will not go the limit.

The bout has been postponed, due to injunctions and what not, a couple of times since May 12.

HARTRANFT SETS TWO RECORDS

Glenn Hartranft, Stanford University's "phenom," shown in action at the Cambridge (Mass.) meet where he established a new record for the shot put and broke the world's record for the discus throw. Stanford was weak on the track, however, and Yale triumphed over the west.

ALL GAMES CALLED OFF IN THE OH-EYE LEAGUE

For six consecutive Sunday's it has rained so hard or the grounds have been so wet that it has been simply impossible to play games, and for six straight weeks there have been thousands of fans disappointed. The situation is simply unprecedented in baseball history of Lima. But there are stout hearts connected with the Limaites; optimistic minds that look forward with strong hopes that when the season does turn favorable there will be an added interest. There is considerable loss connected with the local management. But the same view is taken with the team officials as with the local devotees of the game. It will adjust itself before the end of the season.

There were no games played in the Ohio-Indiana league. This is the first day that all games have been necessarily postponed.

WET GROUNDS AT NEW BREMEN

NEW BREMEN— (Special)— The Oh-Eye league game here Sunday between the local team and Ottawa was postponed on account of wet grounds. Celina is scheduled here next Sunday.

MUDDY FIELD AT DELPHOS

DELPHOS — (Special) — A muddy field prevented play here Sunday of the Celina-Delphos game in the Ohio-Indiana Baseball league. Ottawa, which was scheduled to play in the first game of the season here on May 4, will be the attraction next Sunday.

TO WET AT WAPAK

WAPAKONETA — (Special) —Wet grounds was the cause of the postponement here Sunday of the Angola-Wapakoneta Oh-Eye league game. Bryan, which defeated the locals 5 to 1 in the first game of the season at Bryan, will oppose Wapakoneta next Sunday here.

SQUARED CIRCLE

Near-by events coming off soon are: K. O. Jenkel boxes Red Herring, of Louisville at Bowling Green, June 13. Jack Saunders boxes Young Baker at Bellefontaine, June 27. Eddie Mack of Toledo, is putting on a show sometime this month. He is to open the game in Findlay and will most probably give the Lima boxers a chance with other good boys of this locality. It is quite likely that in the near future there will be some attractive shows put on at Van Wert. Ted Smith, of Canton, wants to box any of the Lima lightweights. He is proving a sensation at 133 pounds. Phil McGraw, one of Detroit's best lightweights, is anxious to get on bouts in Lima. The Lima Gym club is ready to put on a show providing a suitable place can be found.

NEW YORK — (By United Press)—Abe Goldstein, world's bantamweight champion, will be a spectator at the ringside Tuesday night when Pancho Villa and Bud Taylor, Terre Haute terror, tangle for the privilege of meeting Goldstein in a title bout.

NEW YORK—The right to meet Luis Firpo and Jack Dempsey will be a special incentive to victory for Harry Wills Monday night when he meets Bartley Madden in a fifteen round bout at the new Queensboro Stadium. This will be Wills' first real battle in two years and will mark the first successful attempt out of five efforts to bring the heavyweights together during the past six months. Injuries to Wills and interference by fire department officials prevented the other four scheduled bouts.

The experts are practically unanimous in predicting a victory for Wills. Madden however is confident he can stop his opponent in eight rounds.

KANSAS CAN HIT

Rocky Kansas is about thru as a fighter, but he still totes a powerful punch. The Buffalo veteran dropped Johnny Dundee twice some weeks ago and in a more recent bout dropped Freddie Jack, the Englishman.

McGRAW TOOK A CHANCE—WON

BY HENRY L. FARRELL

NEW YORK—(By United Press)—Altho the results are often painful, there are some advantages in finding out the full capabilities of a youhg athlete. In professional sports, where so much depends upon building a good foundation, it is the accepted privilege of a manager to bring youngsters along by adherence to a nursing program in which the hard spots are reached by gradual degrees.

John McGraw, whose success in baseball has made his theories one of the accepted rules of the game, said once that even a finished product from the minor leagues needed at least one season upon a major league bench before he was ready for the big-time.

The Giant manager caused veteran writers and old-time fans to hold court on him when he started three rookies pitching during the first week of the pennant race. The verdict had to be returned in favor of McGraw, however, as the youngsters got by with the games.

Commenting about it later McGraw said that he had to find out what they could do and the only way he could do it was by shoving them in and letting them take it.

In the second game of the season, McGraw started Weyland Dean, a youngster who had never seen a big league park before. He got smacked for two home runs in the first inning, but he didn't lose heart and won his game. McGraw then turned to Virgil Barnes, who had gone thru the bench duty for two seasons and he turned his game. Walter Huntzinger, a boy just a year away from the University of Pennsylvania, then got his call, and he delivered.

The results, of course, were highly successful, not only in the games won and lost, but in the confidence that was instilled in the youngsters by getting recognition from the manager and by making good. The results also had a psychological effect upon the whole team, who played their hearts out to encourage the youngsters.

* * * * *

McGraw is the greatest gambler in the business. He took a long chance when he sent Dave Bancroft away to the Boston Braves, and told young Travis Jackson that he was good enough to play shortstop on a champion team. Jackson had the test put to him last summer in the heat of a close pennant race, and he made good. McGraw, in that case, however, had no option. He had to call on Jackson when Bancroft got pneumonia, because he had no other substitute available.

If a youngster fails the first time he is called to go to the bat in a pinch or the first time that he is asked to take the box or a place in the field, the reaction is purely mental and he can be brought out of it, but a young boxer under the same circumstances may be ruined permanently.

The process of making a boxer is slow and tedious and has little monetary compensation. The temptation to find out what chances a youngster has for the big dough has caused many managers to try to jump the grade school stage of training and hurry their charges into educated company without the necessary training.

* * * * *

The most recent example of the danger in asking a youngster to take it too quickly was that of Paul Berlenbach, the young New York middleweight.

Berlenbach had ten professional fights in which he had shown class that marked him as one of the finest ring prospects brought out. Without granting him the right to learn the racket, the public forced him into a match with Jack Delaney, a fighter the first-class middleweights had been regarding as poison, and it was only natural that Berlenbach should lose.

Another young fighter in the same position might have been heart-broken or at least discouraged, but Berlenbach was smart enough to know that it was not his fault and game enough to figure that it was a piece of valuable experience for him and that he was all the better for it.

Berlenbach said he felt like he was a bush-leaguer facing major league pitching for the first time, and that all he knew how to do was swing a home-run swing that couldn't connect. "I won't be fooled again that way, he said.

HIGH SCHOOL SPRINTER MAY LAND OLYMPIC TRIP

According to Lawson Robertson, veteran coach, Frank Hussey, New York high school boy, is the coming two-yard champion of the country. Robertson is training young Hussey now with a view to placing him on the Olympic team. Should Hussey come thru he'll be the youngest member of the American sports team.

Girls Effect Athletic Ass'n

Organization of a girl's athletic association was effected Monday night at the Y. W. C. A. when all the girls who have won numerals in gymnasium work and basketball held a meeting for that purpose.

Officers elected to serve during the coming year are: Freda Bohenmeyer, president; Zua Roesch, vice-president; Mrs. Inez Irvin, secretary-treasurer; and Clara Stelzer, cheer leader.

Purpose of the association is the upholding of the high standards of gymnasium work and athletics at the Y. W. C. A. and the maintaining of good sportsmanship.

ST. LOUIS HOLDS YANKS AS SOX TRIM BOSTON

NEW YORK — (By Associated Press) — Discontent among the Bourgeoisie of the big leagues, evidenced by sporadic uprisings of individual clubs, has assumed the proportions of full rebellion in the American circuit.

New York and Boston, tied for the leadership and Detroit one game behind, with Washington which recently joined the first division forces were defeated Sunday in a mass attack by the lower four.

During the action however, the insurgents lost their leader, St. Louis, which moved into fourth place as Washington dropped to fifth. The Browns defeated the world's champions for the second consecutive day as Danforth outpitched Pennock and gave the Yankees their first shutout of the year, 5 to 0.

White Sox were stronger than Red as the pale hose abandoned their hitless tactics and fell upon three Boston pitchers for a 10 to 3 victory, aided by the sensational fielding and daring base running of the speedy Archdeacon, who after making a circus catch, scored unaided after a pass, by stealing second, taking third on Picinich's poor throw and then pilfered home.

Cleveland, evading attempts by Philadelphia to force the Indians into the cellar, scored an equally decisive triumph over Washington, 11 to 3. The Athletics continued their pursuit of Speaker's tribe, however, by a 6 to 5 victory over Detroit.

In the only two games scheduled in the National, the Giants maintained their one game lead over Chicago by defeating Pittsburgh 7 to 0 in a five inning contest as the Cubs beat Brooklyn 8 to 5 in seven innings. Rain stopped both games which were thrilling even tho short.

CLEVELAND—Cleveland made it two straight from Washington today when Coveleskie held the Nationals to nine scattered hits, while McGrew and Martina proved easy for the Indians, who won 11 to 3. Speece was the only Washington pitcher to be effective. Score:

Comedy At Quilna

"The Fighting Coward", translated to the screen from Booth Tarkington's "flop" stage play, is full of action, situations and comedy bits that are sure to please any audience. It opened a four day stay at the Quilna Sunday.

It is a certainty if the play had held the entertaining qualities the picture unfolds it would have been running yet. The play lingered but a month and a half in New York.

The picture burlesques the south's idiosyncrasies without becoming grotesque. The humor is carried right into the titling and is backed by an abundance of atmosphere that has been well photographed.

The story concerns the Rumford family whose son Tom, returns from the north with no desire for mint juleps or duelling, much to the disgust of his father. A series of insults passed by the unheeded boy, proves the last straw for the parent who disowns him with full approval of the entire household with the exception of Lucy, a ward of Rumfords, who loves Tom, for his butterfly chasing.

Wandering into a gambling house he is befriended by General Orlando Jackson and suddenly resolves to become a terror. He polishes off Blackie, the redoubtable killer of eight men, and then returns to Magnolia with blood in his eyes and a mask over his face, eager for revenge. The resultant events in the old household are highly retributive until Lucy discovers the imposter is Tom.

The finish has the self-made desperado again chasing butterflies with the surrounding male community members also indulging. Mary Astor plays the part of Lucy, Noah Beery is amusing as Blackie. Cullen Landis has one of his best roles as Tom and Ernest Torrence is his own usual self in the role of Jackson.

Quilna News and Aesops Fables are added attractions.

PLANKS CHOSEN FOR PLATFORM

G. O. P. Declaration to be Framed by Warren

ISSUES ARE AGREED UPON

Little Opposition in Convention is Expected

CLEVELAND — (By United Press) — Elimination of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge as an important factor in the Republican national convention and the capitulation of Senator James Watson and others to President Coolidge's insistence on a plank, recommending American participation in the existing world court at The Hague, makes it possible now to set forth this year's platform in its important details.

Charles B. Warren, who will be chairman of the platform committee has arrived with the main planks already decided upon by Coolidge supporters, and his will be the job of putting thru the platform with as little delay and opposition as possible.

As always, the party principles will lead off with a preamble setting forth the accomplishments of the Harding-Coolidge administration—the improvement of business conditions, economies effected from the budget system, tax reduction and increased revenue obtained from the tariff act, reduction of the national debt and beneficial legislation passed for various classes of the population.

PLANKS NAMED

Among the planks will be:

1—While much has been done to improve conditions in agriculture there is still more to be done in the direction of cooperative marketing, as advocated by the platform of 1920; there should be readjustment of freight rates.

2—The Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterway should be opened and interior waterways improved to afford an outlet for agriculture.

3—A taxation plan similar to that proposed by Secretary Mellon.

4—The prohibition law should be enforced because disregard of any law begets disrespect for all law.

5—Rigid economy in public expenditures and a firm stand against any "pork barrel" legislation.

6—Support of the constitutional amendment to prevent child labor.

7—Support of a constitutional amendment providing that the terms of the president and members of congress begin in January, following the election, instead of March.

8—Conservative regulation of corporations.

9—Extension of the merit system to decrease problems of patronage.

10—Extension of American loans for rehabilitation and developments of Europe, once the foreign countries accept the recommendation of the Dawes commission.

11—American participation in the international court of justice established and now functioning at The Hague.

12—The calling of a conference for a further limitation of armaments, once the reparations question is definitely settled.

GRADE CROSSING PARLEY HERE

B. & O. Officials to Confer With Bingham on Monday

A. A. Iames, an official of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, is expected to arrive in Lima Monday afternoon for a conference with city officials with regard to reconstruction and repair work on the various crossings of the road within the city, City Manager C. A. Bingham announced Monday.

Several times before officials of the road were to have met with city officials here but failed to show up. A number of warnings have also been sent to them, threatening action of some kind unless crossings were repaired.

No action with regard to the Union-st viaduct is contemplated, city officials state, as widening of the viaduct is impossible. Their only object in having officials of the railroad company in conference is to assure the placing of crossings within the city in good condition, they state.

MRS. HARRIET THOMAS IS VICTIM OF APPENDICITIS

Mrs. Harriet Thomas, 67, wife of Charles E. Thomas, of 1002 W. Spring-st, died early Sunday morning at St. Rita's hospital. Death followed an operation for acute appendicitis.

Mrs. Thomas was born in Utica, N. Y., October 25, 1862, and moved to Sidney with her parents when she was very young. In October, 1886, she was married to Charles E. Thomas. They lived the first five years in Sidney and have since resided in Lima.

Besides the husband, she leaves three children, Paul Thomas, of Easton, Pa., Lois Thomas, a teacher in the Cincinnati schools and Mary Thomas, for the past six years a missionary in Burma. Miss Thomas was to arrive home the latter part of this month for a short vacation with her parents. Three sisters, Mrs. F. E. Riker, of Indianapolis, Misses Emma and Helen Dann, both of Cincinnati, also survive.

Mrs. Thomas was an active member of the First Baptist church and was interested in foreign missions.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday at the First Baptist church. Rev. W. L. Steeves will have charge. The body will be placed in a vault at Woodlawn cemetery pending arrival of the daughter.

Simple Phosphate Real Builder of Strength and Nerve Force, Says New York Physician.

"Common sense as well as experience should teach those who suffer from nervousness and weakness that the most logical thing to do is to put into their systems the substance that is lacking, and that is pure organic phosphate," says Dr. Joseph Harrigan.

$5,000 DAMAGE SUIT OPENS

Dr. Parks, Lafayette, Seeking Balm for Arrest

Trial of an action for $5,000 damages, brought by Dr. J. A. Parks, Lafayette, against C. D. Downhour, for false arrest, commenced Monday in common pleas court before a juhy composed of four women and eight men.

Parks testified in his own behalf and told the jury that Downhour had him arrested and arraigned before Justice of the Peace E. L. Durbin, on a charge of threatening to hit him with an axe.

The case was carried to common pleas court where a not guilty verdict was found by a jury.

The present case is the second attempt made by Dr. Parks to win balm for injured feelings because of his arrest. He sued Justice Durbin, but the case was dismissed. Downhour and his wife feared Mrs. Parks from girlhood.

Members of the jury trying the case are Peter Miller, H. B. Kratzer, J. B. Cochran, James Porter, W. D. Poling, J. W. McPherson, T. H. Siebert, J. D. Roush, Harriett M. Fraunfelter, Mrs. A. D. Askins, Mrs. C. M. Adams and Stella G. Marshall.

ST. MARYS TOLL IS SLIGHT

Greatest Storm Damage is Reported South of City

ST. MARYS — (Special) — Only slight damage was done here by the heavy wind and electrical storm which passed over Ohio early Sunday morning. A few telephone poles were torn down and trees damaged, but general damage was slight. The storm caused greatest damage south of here where a number of trees were reported uprooted and telephone communication interrupted.

Thousands acres of land flooded in recent rains tend to cause considerable loss to farmers who have been unable to plant corn. They say a shortage of corn will be experienced unless exceptionally hot weather comes to the rescue.

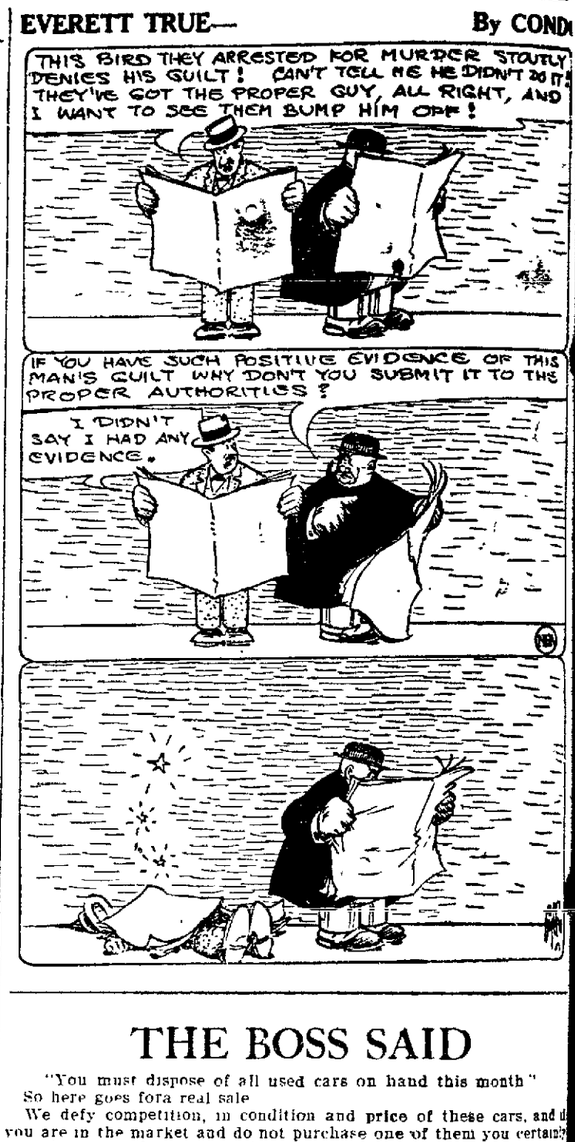
EVERETT TRUE— By CONDI



THIS BIRD THEY ARRESTED FOR MURDER STOUTLY DENIES HIS GUILT! CAN'T TELL ME HE DIDN'T DO IT! THEY'VE GOT THE PROPER GUY, ALL RIGHT, AND I WANT TO SEE THEM BUMP HIM OFF!
IF YOU HAVE SUCH POSITIVE EVIDENCE OF THIS MAN'S GUILT WHY DON'T YOU SUBMIT IT TO THE PROPER AUTHORITIES?
I DIDN'T SAY I HAD ANY EVIDENCE.

THE BOSS SAID

"You must dispose of all used cars on hand this month" So here goes for a real sale

We defy competition, in condition and price of these cars, and if you are in the market and do not purchase one of them you certainly have lost a golden opportunity.

Come tonight to tomorrow and get yours. All payments made at our office.

MARKET STEADY AT CLOSE

Gains Are Scored in Quotations of Corn

CHICAGO — (By Associated Press)—Beneficial rains in the spring wheat territory both north and south of the Canadian line led to lower prices early today for wheat. Houses with northwestern connections were the principal sellers. On the declines, better buying power developed, and the setbacks in price kept within fractional bounds. The opening, which varied from unchanged figures to ½c lower with July $1.04¼ to 1.04⅝ and September $1 05⅝ to 1 05⅝, was followed by a drop all around to well below Saturday's finish.

Corn and oats held relatively firm, prevalent cold weather and rain being adverse for corn growth and replanting. After opening unchanged to ⅛c higher, July 78½ to 78⅝, the corn market scored slight general gains.

Oats started unchanged to ⅛c up, July 46¼. Later the market sagged a little Provisions were dull and inclined to ease down somewhat despite the steadiness of hog values.

The wheat close was steady at 3-8 to 3-4c net decline. July $1 04 1-4 and September $1 05 3-8 to 1 05 1-2

Prices of corn closed firm, 1-4 to 7-8c net higher, July 78 3-4 to 78 7-8,

Engineers tell how to save 30% on gasoline

—and get greater power from motor, greater flexibility

Now you can get all the power your motor was built to deliver.

And still save 30% of what you now pay for gasoline in a year!

Careful engineering tests prove both statements.

Power units in gas

Now you have gasoline refined, or "built" to the ideal specifications pictured above. For all gasoline is composed of combustible units. The first 10% give quick starting. The second 10% give instant pick-up. The rest give solid pulling-power, speed, mileage. Above we give a chart showing how this might be analyzed.

PUROL gasoline is accurately refined to contain combustible units in this perfect relationship for power and economy. It gives the ready starting, the flying pick-up, the sturdy power you want.

30% savings proved

For 2 years our engineers have tested PUROL in 38 different cars. Records of these tests prove:

1 That PUROL gives 3.3% greater mileage.
2 That PUROL burns cleanly —does not drip down into crank-case. 14.2% of gasoline saved this way.
3 That saving of lubricating oil in this way amounts to $2.98 a year.
4 That saving in general repairs, because of undiluted lubricating oil, averages $10.33 a year.

The average car consumes 500 gallons of gas a year. So the first two savings—87½ gallons at 20c —total $17.50. The four savings show a yearly total of $30.81. 30% of the annual gasoline cost for the average car!

Test in your own car

Make a test of PUROL Gasoline. Feel your motor respond with greater power, greater flexibility. And at the end of a year you'll find that it has saved a substantial sum for you.

PUROL quality never varies. Our rigid specifications are strictly maintained. You can count on it today or 5 years from today.
